Dear Bertha,

With this I write a few lines in haste. I just wanted to let you know, I am coming in April. It would be best at Easter time, then I would have time and the fares would be cheaper. I want to bring Hulda too. Her eyes are not much better yet And her head has gone up in two places.

The second son of the Schultzes, is dead. It was a big funeral. It was a hard blow for the poor mother.

I have to close now and hope you are as well, when these lines reach you, as they leave us.

Richard will bring a wife into his house soon. Everything else we will talk about when we meet.

Lydia and Gustav Saegenschnitter
