Grace and Peace to greet you.

Dear sister and brother-in-law.

I have received your note and so must inform you that Edel and Meta came back on Monday 30th March. Meta came home here on Friday.

Last Sunday we sang the memorial hymn for Lydia, no. 1121 "Wird das nicht Freude sein" (Won't that be joy ...").

Meta looks quite well. I don't feel very well the pain is still too great.

My sale is set for Monday.

I will continue a letter to you some other time.

With many hearty greetings from us to you,

I remain your brother -in-law

G. Saegenschnitter.

[Note: Following the death of his daughter Elsa on January 17th, Gustav's wife Lydia had died on the 20th March. - K. Z.]
